

Attention Employers:

Are you tired of taking valuable time, energy and money away from running your business to hire the right employee?

The Focus Talent job posting tool can help you!

Let our free website tool take the work out of finding talented workers.

Focus Talent is Kentucky's job website for employers where you can post job openings and search resumes for free.

As an employer, finding qualified workers can be one of the most challenging tasks you face. We can help you find the best employee for your job opening by giving quick and easy access to a large pool of qualified job seekers.

Our job-matching website casts a wide net to find the skills, knowledge and abilities you need to make your business successful. In addition to receiving matches for the most qualified job seekers, we'll rank candidates based on how well they qualify for your job opening.

We offer the greatest number of candidates to employers by looking at your job description and requirements and matching resumes based on the total candidate.

Focus Talent offers you the following free services:

- Quick and convenient job posting
- Easy job description writer to help you post effective job postings
 - Advanced search engine that returns the most relevant information
- Automated candidate referrals to your inbox
