The Executive Committee met for a special called meeting regarding the review of a letter of support written to improve KYOVR's Self-Employment Program through grant funding.

Discussion was held. Diana Merzweiler expressed her support of the letter via email. She stated, "I am encouraged to see another pathway for individuals to seek earning income through their own businesses. Although a vote is not necessary from me due to my prior commitment. I fully support this endeavor and the letter of support from the Employment First Executive Committee." No further discussion.

A motion as made by Amanda Owen to accept the letter of support as written. Jeff White, second. No abstentions or opposition. No further discussion. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned.
