Education and Labor Cabinet Office of Vocational Rehabilitation

Statement of Eligibility and Agreement of Understanding

Eligibility Statement:

You are eligible for Vocational Rehabilitation Services because you have a disability that keeps you from getting and keeping a job. Vocational Rehabilitation services can only be provided if there is a good chance you will get a job after receiving these services.

Your Responsibility:

You will work with me and try to help yourself as much as you can. If you fail to do your part, your services may be stopped.

Client Assistance:

This program has been explained to you. If you have problems or questions about your Rehabilitation Program after talking with me, you can call the Client Assistance Program at Kentucky Protection and Advocacy at 1-800-372-2988 (toll free).

Funding:

You understand some parts of this program may depend on your financial resources and the amount of money available to serve clients. If you qualify for funds or services from other sources, you understand they will be used for your Rehabilitation Program.

Changes In Your Program:

If you no longer qualify for services, you understand, I will discuss the reason with you. If changes occur which affect your program, you will be notified. Your right to appeal these decisions has been explained to you.

At least once a year, you and I will lool	k at your program to see what progress you are making or if
-	when your program is finished your case will be closed. You may eded, to keep your job even after your case is closed.
Counselor's Signature	Date

The Kentucky Office of Vocational Rehabilitation does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, religion, type of disability, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, citizenship, pregnancy, veteran status, or any other status protected by applicable law.